Virginia's Progress

Former Congressman C. C. Carlin Addresses Large Audience

Former Representative Charles Creighton Carlin spoke to a capacity audience last night in the Young People's Building, under the auspices of the Cameron Club..

Mr. Carlin made a most interesting address, outlining the history of the country in its law making, paying tribute to George Mason, of Gunston Hall, author of the "Bill of Rights" the foundation of the constitution, and the guide for all the law makers since the days of Mason He spoke of the part Virginia's sons' have played in the making of history and how near to this city have been the homes of men great in the law forming annals of the country.

Mr. Carlin dwelt upon the advantages to be derived from amended school laws and good roads, urging the importance of the proposed amendmencs to the constitution, improving the present schools laws and insuring good roads, two essentials to progress in any state.

Mr. Carlin's address was greatly enjoyed, he is a forceful and witty speaker and it is always a pleasure for his fellow townsmen to have an opportunity to hear him .

Miss Helen Norris Cummings presided, first presenting Mrs. Robert South Barrett, who is on a visit to her former home in this city, after a year in South America, and who will return to that country on October 30. Mrs. Barrett greeted her friends of the Cameron Club, of which she is a member, in a very short talk, saying she would not consume the time that should be allotted to Mr. Carlin, but after his address she recited an amusing poem in her usual inimitable manner.

The evening closed with the entire audience singing "My Country, 'Tis of Thee", with Mrs. George E. Warfield as accompanist.

COX TO YIELD ON PEACE TREATY

"Executive Will" Should not Prevail Candidate Declares

READY TO COMPROMISE

Governor Given Great Reception in West Virginia Mine Region—Makes A Dozen Speeches in W. Va.

Huntington, W. Va., Oct. 26.—Governor Cox, of Ohio, announced yesterday that if elected President he would "sit down with the Senate and make an agreement" upon the League of Nations and that his agreement should be determined by the Senatorial elections.

The 'executive will," the Democratic Presidential candidate said, should not control, and it is "unthinkable," he declared, that American membership in the League should be postponed two years, when the next Senatorial elections would be held. American membership, he indicated, was the primary consideration. That he favored American participation with "clarifying" reservations was reiterated by the Governor.

Hailed by members of the Governor's party as one of the most important of campaign developments, the candidate's announcement was in response to an open letter sent today to Governor Cox and his republican opponent, Senator Harding, by 50 of their supporters urging them to accept whatever revision of the Lodge reservations two-thirds of the next Senate might approve.

The Governor's statement, issued during a rushing West Virginia tour today, said:

"The situation is this: I favor going into the existing League with clarifying reservations. Senator Harding has said that he was not interested in clarification, but in rejection. I have every expectation that after November 2 much of the partisan spirit that has been visited upon discussion of the League will have subsided. One-third of the seats of the Senate are to be filled this year. The people understand the issue and we will accept their expression at face value. I will therefore, sit down with the Senate and reach an agreement about our going into the League. There is no other, and any talk of a new association is but idle phrase. The important thing is to get a start and help to stabilize world conditions which vitally effect the interest and welfare of America. For us to remain out of the League for two years or until another election could be held would be unthinkable. If too much has to be given in compromise now, in order to insure our entrance into the League, the people themselves will have an opportunity to modify and correct later. It connot be a matter of the exercise of merely the Executive will The popular will, as voiced at the polls, must control. The sort of agreement which I shall be enabled to obtain will be determined by the Senatorial elections."

The Governor's announcement followed upon the heels of his statement, in his Madison Square Garden speech last Saturday in New York, that he would "compromise", the reservation controversy. Attention also was called to the circumstance that it followed Elihu Root's statement that Governor Cox was as "unyielding" regarding Article 10 as President Wilson.

More than a dozen speeches were made through the West Virginia mountain country yesterday by Governor Cox, and the State gave him one of the most enthusiastic receptions of the campaign. Miners, railroad men and other toilers were prominent among the thousands which cheered the candidate vociferously.

Special appeals were made through the State by the Governor to miners and others of the working classes and these were loudly applauded. He told of the "mine run" payment, the mine safety, workmen's compensation and other Ohio laws. Reiterating that "big business" was opposing him, because he said, it didn't like the progress administration of six years of Cox in Ohio," the candidate declared also that "big business" opposed his "use of the Golden Rule instead of the bayonet" in industrial controversies. At Hinton a railroadmen's memorial presented to the Governor said 100 had contributed $1 each toward expense of the candidate's special train yesterday.

IN MEMORIAM

DAVIES—In sad but loving remembrance of our devoted daughter and sister, Viola May Davies, (nee Humphries) who departed this life twelve years ago today, October 26th, 1908.
Just in the womanhood of youth so fair,
She slumbers sweetly and knows no care.
Her heart was true, her life was young,
But not our will, but God's, be done.
Her face our minds will always see,
Forgotten she will never be.

CLUE TO SOLDIER MAY SOLVE MURDER

H. W. Wade, This City Gives Latest Tip on Scanland

DETECTIVES ON TRAIL

Man Resembling Scanland Attacked October 16 in Washington and Whisked Away in Auto

A clue which the authorities think may lead to the solution of the murder of Maj. Frank Murphy Scanland, whose body was found last Friday evening in the woods a mile north of Alexandria, has been furnished the police of Washington by Harry W. Wade of this city, who conducts a job printing office at 313 King street.

Mr. Wade first reported the clue to Chief of Police Goods and Chief Goods believed it so strong a lead that he had Mr. Wade go to the undertaking establishment of William Demaine and Son and view the body of Scanland and afterward accompanied him to Washington where he gave the information he possessed to Inspector Clifford L. Grant, of the Washington Police department. The facts given by Mr. Wade are to the effect that on the night of October 16 at 9.45 o'clock while returning from a Washington theatre he was attracted by a scuffle between men southeast corner of Tenth and E street, northwest, Washington. He saw a man resembling Scanland apparently endeavoring to make passes at three men, two of whom were sailors and one a soldier. He first thought they were skylarking. However, he says the soldier struck the civilian a powerful blow causing him to fall to the sidewalk in front of a cigar store. The man evidentally fractured his skull Mr. Wade thinks. The soldier seeing him dying helpless than dragged his victim a few feet and sat him up against the iron post of a mail box on the corner.

Just after the stranger fell from the blow to the sidewalk two women ran from across the street and yelled "Don't kill him." Mr. Wade says he realized the man was in a serious condition and he immediately went into the cigar store at the corner for the purpose of notifying the police by telephone. He got a dollar bill changed and was looking in the telephone di

King Of Greece Dead

Alexander Dies After Illness of Little More Than Three Weeks Caused by Monkey Bite

Athens, Oct. 26.—King Alexander of Greece, died at 5.20 P. M. yesterday. His death was due to wounds received when a pet monkey attacked him early in October, the King being badly mutilated.

Throughout the night the heart action grew weaker, his general debility became more pronounced and pulmonary symptoms were intense. Breathing at times was most difficult and alarming, and at noon yesterday it was announced that the King's condition was hopeless.

The death of King Alexander gives rise to the question of succession to the Greek throne. Former King Constantine was reported, according to Swiss dispatches of October 17, as intending to take advantage of the situation created by his son's grave illness by returning to Greece and claiming the throne.

Alexander succeeded to the throne of Greece in June, 1917, when his father, King Constantine, abdicated in response to the demands of France, Great Britain and Russia, the three powers which had guaranteed the constitutional liberties of the Greek people .Alexander was the second son of Constantine and at the time of his accession was not quite 14 years old. His elder brother, Crown Prince George was considered ineligible for the throne because of altered pro-German sympathies.

THIRD FASTER DIES AFTER MACSWINEY

Joseph Murphy Succumbs to 74 Day Hunger Strike

BURIAL IN CORK

England Delays Giving Out Notice of Lord Mayor's Death For Several Hours.

Cork, Oct. 26.—Joseph Murphy, one of the hunger strikers in Cork Jail, died last night.

The death of Murphy occurred at 8.35 P. M. He was 25 years old and unmarried. Murphy was a member of the Irish Volunteers and was well known as an athlete.

Joseph Murphy was one of the 11 men incarcerated in Cork jail two days before Lord Mayor MacSwiney was sent to Brixton Prison, in London. All the men in Cork jail immediately went on a hunger strike. Last week one of them, Michael Fitzgerald died.

Murphy's father, Timothy Murphy, a shoemaker, emigrated to America in 1891, settling in Lynn, Mass., where three of his children, including Joseph, were born. The father declared that he took out his citizenship papers in 1895, but that he left the United States before his naturalization became complete.

At the beginning of the war one son, born in Lynn, according to Mr. Murphy, registered at the American consulate in Queenstown as an American. Joseph, however, failed to register.

It is asserted that the Government accusation against Murphy was that he had a bomb in his possession.

London Oct. 26.—Terence MacSwiney, Lord Mayor of Cork, the most prominent of the Irish hunger strikers and said to have been the brains of the republican army in Ireland, died early yesterday in Brixton Prison.

The end was not unexpected, for the Lord Mayor had been unconscious for several days. He was entering upon the seventy-fourth day of his hunger strike as a protest against a sentence of two years' imprisonment on several charges, including one of having seditious documents in his possession.

Only his brother, John MacSwiney and his private chaplain, Father Dominic, were with him when he died. Mrs. MacSwiney and the prisoner's two sisters, Annie and Mary, were at a nearby hotel.

The Lord Mayor, who was terribly emaciated as a result of his long abstinence from food, had been delirious for many hours and was unconscious when death came.

It was several hours after the Lord Mayor died before his brother was permitted to tell Mrs. MacSwiney the news. She immediately went to the prison accompanied by her parents and the Misses MacSwiney, and the family group, stoical and dry-eyed, prayed over the body as it lay on the cot.

There were no untoward demonstrations outside the prison after the news of MacSwiney's death became generally known. A large force of police had been collected to put down any disorder that might occur.

Just before MacSwiney died Father Dominic and John MacSwiney knelt at the beside and offered prayers. The priest administered extreme unction.

It is well with in the possibilities that the body will be taken to Cork secretly in order to avoid unpleasant results from whatever demonstrations might be arranged in England and Ireland along the route traversed by the train bearing the body. There is no intimation that any official advocates refusal to send it to Cork.

GOV. COX ON RECORD.

In his Madison Square speech on Saturday night Gov. Cox declared:

"I would willingly accept a reservation stating explicitly that the United States assumes no obligation to use its military or naval forces to defend or assist any other member of the League unless approved and authorized by Congress in each case."

This is a complete answer to the extraordinary performances in hair-slitting by which eminent counsel on the Harding side have been trying to prove that no reservation—unless it was called a Lodge reservation—could safeguard this country against the "obligation" in the text of Article X.

Gov. Cox' pledge involves no departure from his original position. It involves no change in the essential merits of the question as friends of the League have understood it from the beginning. Always they have believed that the obligation implied in Article X could only come into force when Congress by specific action in every specific case had recognized that the obligation applied. This is what Mr. Taft had in mind when he declared repeatedly that he was ready to accept Article X without and reservation. Mr. Taft frankly acknowledged, what all friends of the League have known to be true, namely, that on the vital matter of war and peace it must be for every nation to decide for itself whether an obligation was in force. Mr. Taft, though he believed no reservation necessary, accepted the Lodge reservations for the sake of reassurance. Gov. Cox has now accepted the Lodge reservation for the same reason.

Enemies of the Covenant have bedevilled the question from the beginning by sacrificing common sense to verbinge. They have insisted upon reading the Covenant with a microsope instead of with the eye of plain vision. They have portrayed the Covenant as a bond in the hands of foreign Shylocks, out to get their pound of flesh from America, instead of an agreement whose validity depended in the last resort upon the free consent of the parties to the agreement. They have insisted on forgetting that the whole intention of the Covenant, so far as the United States is concerned, is to give assurance of our continued interest in the maintenance of world peace. They have raised the silly spectre of a United States coerced by members of the League into action that the conscience and judgment of the American people do not approve.

To those who live in the world of realities that possibility of coercion upon the American people never existed. But for the reassurance of the timid, friends of the League have been willing to accept any safeguards in language, provided the League was got under way. That has been Gov. Cox's position from the beginning. Hhe has now made it clear in words that should satisfy even Root and Hughes. Gov. Cox is so sincerely in favor of "going in" that he has virtually accepted the Lodge reservation for which Senator Harding twice voted.

It is now for Mr. Harding to speak. Is he still for staying out?

MACSWINEY'S DEATH.

After a fast of seventy-four days the Lord Mayor of Cork has died With the exception of the Easter rising of 1916, no Sinn Fein manifestation has received such universal publicity. The newspapers of the world have carried a daily bulletin on the condition of Terence MacSwiney for more than ten weeks, and have brought the Irish question to the attention of many thousands of people hitherto indifferent. In the mass, all references to the subject have been sympathetic, for human nature has not yet lost its respect for the individual who will give his life for a principle. Life is not so cheap as the anti-militarists pretend it has become since the colossal holocaust of the great war. To die for one's country is still held to be the greatest, the supreme sacrifice. Whatever may be said for or against Sinn Fein there is no doubt that only patriotism could have inspired MacSwiney. Powerful representations were made in England to induce the British Government to extend to this prisoner the treatment previously accorded to political offenders. They were as unsuccessful as the intervention of Viscount Grey, Lord Morley, and other far-sighted spokesman of enlightened English opinion in the purely political field. The result in both instances is the same, a strengthening of the Irish will to resist and an immense propaganda for Sinn Fein.

THE AUTOMATIC FIRE BELL.

(Communicated.)

The volunteer firemen of the city are keenly interested and anxious to know what sort of a report the joint committees on finance and fire will make to City Council tonight. Our firemen depend on bells to arouse them at night and during the past two years they have had difficulty in the alarms sounded. The duty of sounding these alarms rests upon the policeman on night duty but most of the time they are not in the vicinity of the fire stations and sometimes it is probably ten minutes before a bell is rung. When a fire is in progress men are needed quickly and it is folly to rely on the antiquated system longer. Saturday's Gazette contained an article relative to an automatic fire alarm. Being an ex-firemen I was interested, and visited one of the fire houses. An examination of the invention revealed it was just what the department needs. Our fire department is recognized as the most efficient branch of our municipal government, and its operative expense as small as any.

Therefore, it is believed our city fathers will see in the permanent installation of these automatic alarms a possibility of serving the public as well as the firemen, and correct a condition that is bridling the efficiency of the boys who so admirably volunteer their services.

rectory for the number of police headquarters when a young boy came in and explained that the man had been taken away from the scene in a private automobile. Mr. Wade then says he abandoned the idea of phoning the police. The two sailors, however, were still on the corner after the victim of the assault of the soldier had been spirited from the scene, The Washington hospitals were unable to recall any such case brought to them October 16.

Inspector Grant and every detective at headquarters today is engaged in the task of endeavoring to locate the soldier who struck the blow to the stranger believing that it may shed some light on the case. This is the only tangible clue thus far furnished the Washington police and it was given them through Chief Goods of the Alexandria police force, Mr. Wade having first informed the chief of what he witnessed.

Before disappearing from the Raleigh Hotel October 15 Scarland had a 45-calibre army service revolver which he borrowed from a friend. It also was learned that he had a dinner engagement with a friend for that evening which he failed to keep.

It is the opinion of the Washington police that his slayers then were on his trail and that was his reason for borrowing the pistol, he realizing that he was being tracked by enemies.

The automatic was borrowed from his friend, Maj. Norman E. Kane. Scarland when he borrowed it gave as his reason that he desired to show the weapon to a friend who had never seen an army service pistol.

Lieut. Walter Sheehan of Walter Reed Hospital, Washington, was the man with whom he had the engagement for dinner. However, no significance was attached to his failure to appear.

It has been learned that the night Scarland talked to Maj. Kane and borrowed the pistol he was dressed in the same clothes that he had on when the body was found in the woods in Arlington county. A plain gold watch given Scanland by the Italian government he told Maj. Kane he had left in Panama and he expected to obtain it when he returned to Central and South America where he expected to secure employment with a firm of contractors.

Attorney John C. Henry, Oswego, N. Y., who represented Scanland, is now in Washington, conferred yesterday with Inspector Clifford L. Grant. However, he could throw no light on the case other than what is already known about the dead man's habits while in Washington.

RHEUMATISM Leaves You Forever

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poison Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-four Hours.

Every druggist in this country is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer that if two bottles of Allenrhu, the sure conquerer of rheumatism, does not stop all agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

Allenrhu has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and piteous and where the patient was helpless.

Mr. James H. Allen, the discoverer of Allenrhu, who for many years suffered the torments of acute rheumatism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenrhu decisively conquers this worst of all diseases, and he has instructed all druggists to guarantee it in every instance.

There are just two things which make CORBY BREAD Superior to any other--

What it is made of---and the Manner in which it is made.

Of course, we use the very best of ingredients---not just the "run of the market"---but the best we can find through careful search.

And our making process has been scientifically developed. We patented the dough-mixers we use---which enable us to obtain the full gluten strength of the flour---not possible in any other way.

Therein you have the two factors which make

CORBY BREAD 100 Per Cent Nutritious
100 Per Cent Pure.

We shall be glad to have you visit our bakery here in Alexandria and see just how we make Corby Bread.

Delivered fresh from our ovens to your grocer or delicatessen.

Pure as Mother Made It.

$25 Worth of Genuine Pathe Records FREE

Two More Reasons for this Nation Wide Demonstration

The first is: Because both we and the manufacturers who are co-operating with us in the conduct of this sale, were afraid of embargoes and transportation tie-ups this fall and were determined to make our shipments before shipping channels became blocked with the crops and coal, as we were going to make sure that no patron of ours should lack the desired talking machine this Christmas.

This sale was planned months ago. The phonographs were manufactured months ago. All details and plans were worked out months ago, and the phonographs allotted for this sale in Alexandria are now on our floors for you to make your free and unrestricted choice.

Thus, we guarantee to deliver the identical instrument you select, and it may be delivered to your home at once, without delays or indefinite waiting.

The second is—Because the Pathe Company want to emphasize to the persons who wish to buy and own a phonograph, that phonograph manufacturers are not profiteers.

The Pathe Company is one of the largest manufacturers of phonographs and phonograph records in the world. It is not, and never has been, a profiteer.

Its phonographs and records are sold today at a price which more closely approximates the good old before-the-war prices than any other merchandise of a similar nature. And it will take a long time and a lot of reducing before other commodities come down to the fair and reasonable prices of Pathe phonographs

While nearly all commodities, even the barest necessities, have advanced to double their former prices, yet here is the genuine Pathe Phonograph, Model 10, today, 100 of them for you to select from, with complete equipment, everything necessary to your full enjoyment of your machine, together with $25 worth of genuine Pathe Records, all for $150.

And what is more, you may spread your payments out over ten months, after making a first payment as best suits your convenience.

These are the facts that prompted this stupendous sale which is planned to be held from coast to coast. They constitute two of the main reasons for organizing this great demonstrating selling campaign, and they afford you a most extraordinary opportunity to own a phonograph you will be ever proud of, at a price and upon terms you should jump at in eagerness to procure.

Conditions of Sale

1. The phonograph offered in this sale is the 1921 genuine Pathe Phonograph Model No. 10, 43 inches high, 20 1-2 inches wide and 20 1-2 inches deep, as shown in cut, Mahogany, Walnut or Oak, 5-ply, absolutely the most substantial cabinet construction on the market today, equipped with:

"AT BRINK OF DEFEAT"
Cox Sees Reprehensible Tactics of Republicans Causing Their Ruin

Boston, Oct. 26.—Prediction that the Republican party will be overwhelmed in the election was made by Governor Cox in a telegram to Michael A. O'Leary chairman of the Democratic State Committee, which was made public last night.

"The ground swell for the League and Democratic ticket," the telegram said, "is about to overwhelm the Republicans. The most reprehensible and untruthful campaign in politic history is at the brink of defeat. Now is the time to redouble your effort if such great effort as you have made can be redoubled.

"Let us [illegible] overwhelming the victory which is certain. I shall ever be grateful for the [illegible] you have put forth in behalf of cause greater than any personality of mine, but I must always feel under a personal debt to you for what you have done in my name."

MINISTER FASTS TO CONVERT KIN BUT EFFORT FAILS

Columbus, Ky., Oct. 26.—After a hunger strike of twenty-two days designed to force his daughter, a school teacher, to profess religion, Rev. Joe Woolbridge, minister, of Denmark, today broke his fast. The daughter Della refused to profess religion on the grounds that she would not "espouse any cause she did not believe in."

In the closing days of the fast, Rev. Woolbridge became so weak that he had a cot brought into the church where he was conducting a revival and preached his sermons propped up with pillows. Miss Woolbridge left town to escape the notoriety.

Rev. Woolbridge said he received a message from Christ to break his fast. He seemed to be suffering no permanent ill effects from his hunger strike.

SUSPECT GIVES UP TO POLICE

Philadelphia, Oct. 26.—William F. Brines, Penn student, charged with the murder of Elmer C. Drewes, Dartmouth College senior, was committed to jail without bail, following his surrender to police authorities here yesterday.

Brines said he "could not stand and the strain much longer." He gave himself up on advice of his attorney, William A. Gray.

Until the inquest into the death of Drewes is held, Brines probably will be taken to Moyamensing prison, police said.

Professor Weizman said that the Zionist executive body was negotiating with the British Government for the acquisition of some State ground and had plans for the cultivation of vast areas of soil at present barren wastes. He stated that not only the Zionist Council but many other influential Jewish organizations had signified their readiness to co-operate with the Palestine administration in the development of the country.

CLERGYMAN RECOMMENDS CHASCO-VIN

"It restored me to health after twelve years doctoring so I am glad to recommend it to others."

Rev. C. F. Tiemann, 206 South 3rd Street, Steelton, Pa., writes: "For at least twelve years I was troubled with a cough that no doctor that I consulted could cure. Along with the cough I frequently had chills attended with heart attacks. At times I was scarcely able to walk. This continued until I began taking Chasco-Vin on the recommendation of a druggist friend.

In a short while the cough began to leave me. I could breathe more freely and now I am cured in so far that whenever I feel my old trouble coming back I begin again on Chasco-Vin and am soon relieved.

I have recommended this medicine to many others with equally good results so you can do with by recommendation what you please. Chasco-Vin is a good medicine for me and has restored me to health."

The Alexandria agency for Chasco-Vin is Edgar Warfield, jr., King and Pitt streets. Call at Warfield's Pharmacy and inquire further about it.
